

PLRB Claims Conference Presenter Resources

SAMPLE BIOGRAPHIES

Name, title, The Law Firm, New York, New York. has x years of litigation experience including arbitration, trials and appeals throughout the U.S. involving first-party insurance coverage disputes, subrogation, reinsurance, broker liability, and fraud claims; lectured on insurance and law, including fraud, and reinsurance matters; admitted to the New York and New Jersey bars and is a member of the County Lawyers' Association.

XYZ is an independent damage investigator and appraiser with over 20 years experience. He is currently Technical Advisor to the National Institute of Disaster Restoration. He is the author of various books and has published over -- articles on damage repair. Major loss experience includes ... He is an Accredited Member of the American Society of Appraisers, an NIDR Certified Restorer, and has testified as an expert witness on damage, restoration, and damage appraisal.

SAMPLE LEARNING OBJECTIVES: Learning objectives indicate what participants will be able to demonstrate after attending your session/class.

At the end of the session, attendees will be able to:

Sample A

- 1) Develop critical path for management of coverage issues, cause and site investigation, and management of experts;
- 2) Identify structures and a critical path for reconstruction; and
- 3) Communicate effectively with various experts.

Sample B

- 1) Evaluate the fraud indicators associated with commercial claims, including water damage and mold claims;
- 2) Employ effective investigative techniques to determine whether a claim is fraudulent; and
- 3) Identify the key fraud indicators in a series of typical property claims.

Sample C

- 1) Recognize "at risk" construction components;
- 2) Determine the most effective approach to correcting construction defect problems;
- 3) Estimate repair values; and
- 4) Control costs of ancillary work.